About Hidden Trails

Explore the World on & with Hidden Trails

Hidden Trails is owned and operated by nature enthusiasts who love the outdoors and adventure activities. We have been involved with outdoor vacations for over 20 years. We have collected the best outdoor vacation destinations all over the world in some hidden places we would like to share with you.

These vacations are about forging rivers, biking along canals and through forests, hiking along age-old trails, gazing at beautiful vistas and encountering foreign cultures. But most of all, these trips are about getting away from the cycle of too much work and never enough free time.

Escape from the rituals, which long ago froze our nights and days into little more than routine and away from the worries of our new tense times. It is so satisfying when we take the plunge of adventure - it's unfortunate that we invent so many reasons to put aside living our dreams of adventure. It is sometimes a tangled web that we weave through life. Some of the threads reveal a work-a-day world of commitments, duties and obligations. Other threads are of a quiet fabric of hope, responsibility and refreshment.

On our adventures you see the real country, its back country and meet the locals. The love for the outdoors has no boundaries but possesses a common language we all speak and understand.

You will experience new countries and their customs and make new friends.

These trips have been tested by our staff or associates and received our stamp of approval. If you are considering a special outdoor vacation anywhere in the world, call us first and let our experienced consultants match the perfect trip with your dream. We will listen to you and give you objective advice to help you choose the best destination and adventure.

Your vacation is the most precious time of the year and we are committed to making it the most memorable time of your life. Wherever you go, have a great time and bring back some peace of mind.

Thank you for your continued support.

Introduction

Cusco, Peru

Hidden Trails offers "Adventure at its finest": the opportunity to experience the essence of adventure within the realm of creature comforts. But for Hidden Trails, a great adventure does not end there: for it to be a life-changing experience for our guests, we believe that the experience has to be an adventure on many levels. This is why our proposal goes far beyond comfortable lodges and great treks...it is a unique opportunity to experience ancient history in the Land of the Incas, contemporary manifestations of deep-founded culture, the most interesting and exotic variety of flora and fauna, culinary surprises, the determination of local people to progress, new friends and like-minded souls.

Experience The Salkantay Trek to Machu Picchu in style. This 7-day lodge to lodge trekking adventure will take you on a historic section of Inca trail through 15 different eco-systems, while you traverse a mountain pass over 15,000 feet, explore villages where locals still maintain age-old traditions and re-discover the mystical beauty of Machu Picchu, the crown jewel of the Inca Empire.

Each day's trek ends with a hot shower in a cozy lodge, complemented by a massage or a dip in an outdoor Jacuzzi, followed by a gourmet meal with select wines and all provided with highly personalized service by local staff.

The Salkantay adventure goes beyond deluxe lodges and a great trek... it is a unique opportunity to experience ancient history in the Land of the Incas, as well as the most interesting and exotic variety of flora and fauna, all in the company of new friends and like-minded souls.

Riding

Altitude

Altitude sickness is most common at elevations above 6,500/1,900m and results from the body adjusting to a decreased amount of oxygen. To combat this, we recommend spending a few nights in Cusco prior to the start of your program. In addition, it is always important to drink plenty of water. Filtered and purified water is available at our lodges and carried by trek support at all times. In case of extreme altitude sickness, both oxygen and hyperbaric chambers are available as needed.

Age Limits

The recommended minimum age of participants is 12 years old. However, we may consider exceptions depending on experience and physical condition.

Insurance

We kindly request that every guest presents valid proof of insurance coverage as a minimum for Medical Emergency Treatment and Evacuation. Make sure that the insurance policy includes Adventure Travel Activities or similar coverage.

Guides

Depending on group size, 1 main guide or one main and one assistant guide you for the duration of the itinerary. Our guides are among the best in Peru (some even having won international awards) and have on average at least 15 years of experience guiding in the mountains, not only in Peru, but around the world. Many of them are considered pioneers in this area, having scouted many of the current routes in the country. All your tour guides have excellent language skills, and are highly trained in managing group dynamics. All guides undergo continuous medical and rescue training, with a certification in "Wilderness First Aid." You will appreciate their knowledge of history and cultural traditions, as well as their interpretation of local flora and fauna, and their great insights (and stories!) that go far beyond any guide or history book.

Sample Itinerary - subject to changes

Day 0: Pre-trip

We recommend that you arrive at least 1 (better 2) nights before the trek in Cusco to acclimatize to the altitude. A welcome meeting is scheduled for 7PM on the day before the actual trip start, at El Mercado Hotel.

Day 1: Cusco to Salkantay Lodge

After an early breakfast, your guide and driver will pick you up at your hotel in Cusco. The first stop is a visit to the Quillurumiyoc archaeological site en route to the mountain village of Mollepata.

Enjoy lunch at El Pedregal, a beautiful farmhouse in the village, where you will also have the opportunity to learn about local agriculture and livestock. After lunch comes a scenic ride on the winding mountain road to Challacancha. Here you will begin your hike to our flagship Salkantay Lodge at Soraypampa along a picturesque path called the "Camino Real" (Royal Path).

Note: Although we highly recommend participating in the hike as part of your continued altitude acclimatization, guests may opt out and continue by transport to Salkantay Lodge.

Overnight at Salkantay Lodge (3,869 m / 12,690 ft)

Trekking Time: Approximately 3 hours (including picnic lunch en route)

Hiking Level: Easy to Moderate

Meals included: Lunch & Dinner

Overnight at Salkantay Lodge (3,869 m / 12,690 ft)

Day 2: Hike to the Humantay Lake

Another opportunity to gauge your altitude-acclimatization with a half day optional hike to Lake Humantay (we strongly recommend your participation in preparation for the strenuous hike on the next day). After breakfast, you begin an ascent up the slopes that border the plateau behind the Salkantay Lodge. An hour and a half later, you will be stunned to see the turquoise water of the lake. Here you will have a chance to relax, enjoy a snack, meditate in the tranquility of this magical spot and be part of a traditional offering to "Pachamama" (Mother Earth). After your descent back to the lodge, the staff will be waiting with a hot lunch. The second half of your day is spent at leisure. You may opt to soak in our outdoor jacuzzi, indulge in a relaxing massage or even take a long nap.

Trekking Time: Approximately 4 hours

Hiking Level: Moderate to Challenging

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Overnight at Salkantay Lodge (3,869 m / 12,690 ft)

Day 3: Crossing the Salkantay Pass

After an early start, the ascent toward the Salkantay Pass begins. You will circle Humantay Peak, gradually making your way along expansive plateaus connected by enormous boulders, remnants of the Rio Blanco Valley that was once bisected by a fast-flowing river. The last and most challenging part of the ascent is conquering the mountain switchbacks that lead you to the pass, the highest point on the trek (15,213' / 4,636m). The journey continues with a dramatic descent through fields of large boulders and natural stone formations often shrouded in fog. You will have some time to rest and enjoy some trail mix before the final hike through the area's bucolic countryside; its rolling hills will eventually lead you through marsh-like plateaus to the Wayra Lodge at Wayracmachay, where you can wash away the trail dirt and have a great hot and tasty lunch.

In the afternoon relax in the Jacuzzi or enjoy the great and impressive views of surroundings high snowed peaks.

Trekking Time: 6-7 hours (including lunch)

Hiking Level: Challenging

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Overnight at Wayra Lodge (3,906 m / 15,213 ft)

Day 4: Descending into the Cloud Forest

After a leisurely breakfast at the Wayra Lodge, you continue the descent along the banks of the Salkantay River through increasingly verdant scenery. Today you will see more of the local people as the trail takes you past their simple homes and makeshift fences. At lunch time you will arrive at Colpa Lodge, located on a high promontory at the confluence of three rivers. You are greeted by the staff with a Pachamanca lunch, a traditional Peruvian meal cooked in the earth by hot stones that create a natural underground oven. After lunch, spend the afternoon lounging in the sun or relaxing in the outdoor jacuzzi while you take in the panoramic views of the lush green mountains that surround you.

Trekking Time: 3-4 hours

Hiking Level: Easy to Moderate

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Overnight at Colpa Lodge (2,870 m / 9,414 ft)

Day 5: Following the Santa Teresa River Valley

Today you will hike through the Santa Teresa River Valley along a rolling trail that crosses fertile fruit orchards and bisects streams originating from glacier-fed waterfalls. Rest alongside the river for a trail mix, then continue hiking for one more hour before you are met by a transport vehicle for the short drive to the bottom of the Llapatapa Inca Trail steps that lead to Lucma Lodge.

Enjoy a great lunch at the lodge and afterwards, visit an organic coffee plantation, one of many in the area that produce some of the best organic coffees in the world. You will also begin to notice another shift in the climate; in Lucmabamba, the hot air and increased humidity signal that you are even closer to the edge of the Amazon Jungle.

Trekking Time: 5-6 hours (including lunch)

Hiking Level: Moderate to Challenging (because of distance, not terrain)

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Overnight at Lucma Lodge (2,135 m / 7,003 ft)

Day 6: First Views of Machu Picchu from Llapatapa Pass

During a 2-3 hour climb up a path mostly comprised of original Inca steps, you will get a sense of what hiking through the rainforest would be like. Your first milestone today will be the top of the peak, the last one before you reach the Aobamaba River valley that connects you to Machu Picchu. When you arrive at the ruins of Llactapata at the Llactapata Pass (2,736 m/8,974 ft), you will be delighted to see a southeast view of the "back" of the Machu Picchu ruins.

Enjoy your lunch a bit farther down the trail in a meadow with panoramic views. The final descent takes you through lush bamboo forests, until you end the day's hike at the Hidroeléctrica train station. A one-hour scenic train ride delivers you to your final stop, the town of Aguas Calientes at the base of Machu Picchu.

Trekking Time: 5 hours

Hiking Level: Moderate to Challenging

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Overnight at Aguas Calientes Lodge (1,900 m / 6,332 ft)

Day 7: Visit Machu Picchu Sanctuary

Your journey to Machu Picchu begins with a morning rollicking uphill bus ride. As you enter the 'sanctuary' (as locals refer to it), prepare to be awed by the imposing, skillful architecture of the Watchtower, the Temple of the Sun, and the royal Inca residences, among others. After a two-hour guided tour, you will have free time to explore on your own, including a hike up Huayna Picchu Mountain* for dramatic views that stretch from the Urubamba River Valley to the edge of the Amazon Jungle. At some point, be sure to take a moment and sit quietly—listen to the wind, meditate, and absorb the mystical energy that envelops you.

After the visit you will have lunch in Aguas Calientes before a scenic Vistadome train ride to Ollantaytambo (approximately 1.5 hours) and vehicle transfer to your hotel in Cusco (approximately 1.5 hours). As night falls and you arrive amidst the hustle and bustle of the city, you will be touched by a feeling of peace and rejuvenation that will linger long after your journey home.

Trekking Time: 4 hours

Hiking Level: Challenging

Meals included: Breakfast & Lunch

 Note: Huayna Picchu Mountain tickets are subject to availability.*

Spend an Extra Day in Machu Picchu - extra cost

Even though you have enough time to see the core of Machu Picchu Sanctuary during the regular guided tour, most of our guests realize that they would have liked to stay a little longer since there is so much to explore! Let us know at time of reservation if you would like to add this optional day. By spending an extra day at Machu Picchu, you will be able to:

- Make the best of your time visiting a World Heritage Site situated on a spectacular mountain ridge.
- Explore areas of the site that are less visited by most travelers, such as climbing Machu Picchu Mountain (special permit to be purchased in advance) or hiking to the Inca Bridge or the Sun Gate.
- Visit the town of Aguas Calientes and shop the local craft markets.
- Treat yourself to a relaxing end to your vacation and hospitality of the unique Inkaterra Pueblo Hotel.
