About Hidden Trails

Explore the World on & with Hidden Trails

Hidden Trails is owned and operated by nature enthusiasts who love the outdoors and adventure activities. We have been involved with outdoor vacations for over 20 years. We have collected the best outdoor vacation destinations all over the world in some hidden places we would like to share with you.

These vacations are about forging rivers, biking along canals and through forests, hiking along age-old trails, gazing at beautiful vistas and encountering foreign cultures. But most of all, these trips are about getting away from the cycle of too much work and never enough free time.

Escape from the rituals, which long ago froze our nights and days into little more than routine and away from the worries of our new tense times. It is so satisfying when we take the plunge of adventure - it's unfortunate that we invent so many reasons to put aside living our dreams of adventure. It is sometimes a tangled web that we weave through life. Some of the threads reveal a work-a-day world of commitments, duties and obligations. Other threads are of a quiet fabric of hope, responsibility and refreshment.

On our adventures you see the real country, its back country and meet the locals. The love for the outdoors has no boundaries but possesses a common language we all speak and understand.

You will experience new countries and their customs and make new friends.

These trips have been tested by our staff or associates and received our stamp of approval. If you are considering a special outdoor vacation anywhere in the world, call us first and let our experienced consultants match the perfect trip with your dream.

We will listen to you and give you objective advice to help you choose the best destination and adventure.

Your vacation is the most precious time of the year and we are committed to making it the most memorable time of your life. Wherever you go, have a great time and bring back some peace of mind.

Thank you for your continued support.

Itinerary

Sample Itinerary - subject to changes

Day 1: Arrival

We will meet you in Inverness and travel to our accommodation in Helmsdale where we'll stay three nights.

Overnight: Helmsdale, Sutherland

Meals Included: Dinner

Day 2: Dunbeath Strath

The first walk of our tour will be in Dunbeath Strath along Dunbeath Water. The path runs along a gorge through ancient woodland and then reaches open ground. We will see many interesting sites along the way, including an old mill built in 1850/1860, the site of a monastery, an Iron Age broch (fort), a deserted settlement from around 1800 and various chambered cairns. We will visit the Dunbeath Heritage Museum after the walk. On the way back we'll have a short walk to the remains of the Badbea clearance village, where people that were cleared from their land in the 18th century were forced to live.

Walking Distance 6 miles / Elev gain 825 ft.

Overnight: Helmsdale, Sutherland

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

Day 3: Caithness

Drive farther north into Caithness to explore the wealth of archaeological sites in this part of the north Highlands. Most of Caithness is now uninhabited, but the remains show that this area was highly populated in the past. There are a large number of Neolithic and Iron Age sites. Short walks will take us to some of them, including the Grey Cairns of Camster: two Neolithic tombs (a long cairn and a round cairn) built more than 5,000 years ago, and the Hill o'Many Stanes, consisting of about 200 small stones arranged in rows running down a low hill. They were placed about 4,000 years ago, possibly for gatherings and religious ceremonies. Large arrangements of stone rows like this are rare.

Walking Distance 5 miles / Elev gain 730 ft.

Overnight: Helmsdale, Sutherland

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

Day 4: Loch Damh

We will leave the east coast and travel to Torridon on the west coast. Here we'll do a very scenic walk south of Loch Torridon offering stunning views across the loch to the Torridon mountains and down to the sea. The walk starts with going round a peninsula covered in Scots Pine forest. We continue inland along the river Balgy to the Falls of Balgy where the river drops down in a powerful cascade. Our route continues upstream to Loch Damh, surrounded by mountains. From here we will walk down a track back to the road.

Walking Distance 4.75 miles / Elev gain 575 ft.

Overnight: Achnasheen, Wester Ross

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

Day 5: Applecross peninsula

We drive onto Britain's most spectacular pass, the Bealach Na Ba. Weather permitting, our first hike on the peninsula will be from the highest point of the pass into the Applecross peninsula. From here we'll walk up Sgurr a' Chaorachain 2600ft/792m. Our walk starts at 2000ft/600m, so it is a nice short hill walk with spectacular views into the surrounding corries and mountains, getting better with every step. On a clear day the views are all the way to the Isles of Raasay, Skye and Rum. We will visit Applecross after the walk, another pretty village, where we'll have a number of walks to choose from, including a walk to the Coral beaches.

Walking Distance 7 miles / Elev gain 1790 ft.

Overnight: Achnasheen, Wester Ross

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

Day 6: Torridon

We have a number of options around Torridon from coastal walks to hill walks. There is a very nice coastal walk from Diabeg to the bothy at Craig or if we are up for a hill day, we could walk up Beinn Damh, offering a stunning introduction to the mountains of Torridon or we can walk into the spectacular Coire Mhic Fhearchair.

Walking Distance 5-9 miles / Elev gain 985-3215 ft.

Overnight: Achnasheen, Wester Ross

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

Day 7: Lochinver

We'll travel north to Lochinver. Our journey will take us along the scenic coastal route with spectacular mountain and coastal scenery. Suilven, the showpiece of Assynt dominates the landscape north of Ullapool. This is a hill of many shapes. From the south it is a long, drawn-out sugarloaf, with an obvious depression in the middle, from the east it can look like the Matterhorn, rising from its bedrock plinth of Lewisian Gneiss to a narrowing spire. From the north it forms a huge, rounded bastion of quartzite capped sandstone. There will be short walks along the way and since we will be in the Northwest Highlands UNESCO Global Geopark some of the walks in Assynt are geology themed, starting with the Knockan Crag interpretative geology trail on our way north.

Walking Distance 4.5 miles / Elev gain 770 ft.

Overnight: Lochinver, Assynt, Sutherland

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

Day 8: Kirkaig Falls & River Inver

Two walks today, starting with a hike up along the river of Kirkaig to some spectacular waterfalls and beyond. The first walk starts in a beautiful, wooded glen with hazel and birches. We soon leave the woodland and continue on open moorland. As height is gained mountains begin to come in view. The falls plunge 20 meters down the gorge. After having admired the falls, we continue along the glen for even better views of the Assynt mountains. Back in Lochinver we'll walk through mixed woodland beside the fast-flowing River Inver which rushes over rocks with many small waterfalls.

Walking Distance 7 miles / Elev gain 770 ft.

Overnight: Lochinver, Assynt, Sutherland

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

Day 9: Old Man of Stoer & Clachtoll Broch

On our last day, we'll do a rough walk to the Old Man of Stoer, a spectacular sea-stack. The return walk is across the moor and a low hill with fantastic views in clear weather up the Sutherland coast backed by Foinaven mountain and inland the mountains of Assynt – Quinag, Canisp, Suilven, Cul Mor, Cul Beag and Stac Pollaidh. On our way back we will stop at Clachtoll for a short walk to the beach and the remains of Clachtoll Broch.

Walking Distance 6.5 miles / Elev gain 1300 ft.

Overnight: Lochinver, Assynt, Sutherland

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

Day 10: Departure

After breakfast we will travel back to Inverness where the tour ends.

Meals included: Breakfast
